Numb. 7709.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday June 10. to Tuesday June 13. 1738.

Petersbourg, May 20.

THIS Court has received a Courier from Felt Marshal Munich, with Advice, that one of the three Divisions of his Army, which is to be commanded by General Romansoff, had actually begun its March in order to go to Oczakow; but as General Romansoff had not yet joined that Division, it was commanded till his Arrival by General Adjutant Biron, the Duke of Courland's youngest Brother. The Czarina is informed by a Letter she received two or three Days ago from Don Duc Ombo, that he with his Calmucks having entred the Territory of the Cuban Tartars, about the latter End of April, had surprised a considerable Body of those Tartars, which he entirely routed, and had taken Prisoners above 2000 Families, with a great Number of Horses and Cattle, and that he was yet pursuing them towards the Mountains. General Keith continues so ill at Pultawa, that there is little Appearance at present that he will be able to make the Campaign.

Vienna, June 7, N. S. The Grand Duke is set out this Morning by Water for the Army, but Prince Charles, to avoid the Air of the River after his late Feverish Indisposition, goes by Land from Presbourg. There is Advice of Count Konigsegg's Arrival at Belgrade on the 27th past, N. S. We have no Accounts, as was expected, of Count Neuperg's having got together a Body considerable enough to cover the Bannat of Temeswar; on the contrary, the Dispositions and Preparations which had been made for rendezvouzing the Army at Semlin, cannot, it is said, be so suddenly changed as is to be desired; and this Court, which had seemed to flatter itself for some Days past, that the Turks would not have been in a Condition to return to the Attack of Meadia, has received Advice Yesterday from Count Neuperg, that the Peasants from the neighbouring Mountains had seen the Imperial Garrison marching out of the Place.

Dresden, June 8, N. S. The King of Poland, who set out on the 27th past for Fraustadt, returned hither the 1st of this Month. During his Stay of two Days at Fraustadt, his Majesty signed the Universalia for the assembling of the general Diet of the States of Poland at Warsaw. His Majesty conferred on the Palatine of Culm, the Office of Treasurer of Poland; formerly the most lucrative one of the Crown, and still reckoned among the most considerable. His Majesty disposed likewise of a Staroста. The Palatinates and other vacant Offices will be reserved till his Majesty's Arrival at Warsaw. About two Hours after his Majesty left Fraustadt, Count Sapihea, General of the Artillery in Lithuania, was seized with an Apoplectick Fit, and died immediately. The two Saxon Envoys that were sent to Vienna to notify the late Marriage here, are returned. The Royal Family is now at Mauricebourg, where the Queen will lie in, and the King will chiefly reside till their Departure for Poland, which is now intended for the beginning of September, in order to be there some short Time before the opening of the Diet, which is to be on the 6th of October.

Kensington, June 11.

This Day being the Anniversary of His Majesty's Succession to the Crown, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, to compliment his Majesty on that happy Occasion. The Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired, and all publick Demonstrations of Joy were made.

Whitehall, May 20, 1738.

It having been represented to His Majesty, That a most notorious and wicked Practice has of late Years prevailed, and does now particularly prevail, to a very high Degree, in His Majesty's Forest, called New Forest, in the County of Southampton, for Persons unknown, not only to cut down Trees, and Part of Trees, fit for the Service of His Majesty's Navy, but likewise to steal and take away from the said Forest, Timber, after it has been squared into proper Lengths for that Service; and it being apprehended, that the Persons guilty of the said Theft are chiefly encouraged thereto by Persons in the Neighbourhood, who receive the same from them: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement thereto, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds

Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall diſcover any Perſon or Perſons, that have ſtolen, or may hereafter ſteal, any Timber from the ſaid Foreſt, as aforeſaid, or that have received, or may hereafter receive, any ſuch Timber, knowing the ſame to be ſtolen, ſo that the ſaid Offender or Offenders may be apprehended and convicted thereof; the ſaid Reward to be paid by the Surveyor General of his Majeſty's Woods for the Time being, on the Conviction of any of the ſaid Offenders. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Exciſe Office, London, June 6, 1738.

Whereas by an Act made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament for enforcing the Laws made for laying a Duty upon Retailers of ſpirituous Liquors, and for Licenſing the Retailers thereof, it is, amongſt other Things enacted, That if any Perſons, to the Number of Five or more, ſhall, after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſeven hundred and thirty eight, in a tumultuous and riotous Manner, aſſemble themſelves to reſcue any Offender againſt an Act made in the Ninth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for laying a Duty on Retailers of Spirituous Liquors, and for Licenſing the Retailers thereof, or to aſſault, beat, or wound any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall have given, or be about to give, any Information or Evidence againſt, or ſhall have diſcovered or given Evidence againſt, or be about to diſcover or give Evidence againſt, ſeize or bring to Juſtice any Perſon or Perſons offending againſt the ſaid Act of the Ninth of His preſent Majeſty, that then all and every Perſon or Perſons, ſo aſſembling themſelves, and their Aiders and Abettors, being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall be guilty of Felony, and ſubject and liable to the like Pains and Penalties as in Caſes of Felony, and may be tranſported for Seven Years. The Commiſſioners of Exciſe think it proper to give this publick Notice of the ſame, leſt unwary Perſons ſhould incur the Penalties enacted by the ſaid Law.

By Order of the Commiſſioners,
Bendall Martyn, Secr.
